

We are thrilled to announce the third annual Michiana VegFest on Sunday October 23, 2022, 11 AM - 5 PM at the Century Center in South Bend, Indiana.

We hope that your business will choose to be an exhibitor at this event, free and open to the public!

What is Michiana VegFest?

VegFests are community festivals that celebrate a plant-based lifestyle for health, compassion, and environmental conservation. Our VegFest welcomes everyone, from visitors to local businesses, and promotes plant-based resources that can be found right here in Michiana. People will come to enjoy delicious food from regional restaurants and businesses and hear prominent speakers on health, ethical and environmental topics. They will be inspired to cook tasty and nutritious plant-based foods by attending chef cooking demonstrations.

Over 4,000 people attended our second VegFest in April 2019 and most said they would return!

Reasons People Enjoy Our Veg Fest:

- FREE food samples
- Dozens of vendors
- Cooking demonstrations
- Presentations from well-known authors
- Special activities for kids

Attendees Are...

- Curious about veg-eating and healthy living
- Foodies who want to taste innovative preparations
